Tel: 01622 698046

We'll talk about some of the practical and legal issues surrounding the care of people with dementia with particular emphasis on relieving the pressure on their families.

Dr Jane Pritchard will discuss understanding dementia and how the families of people with dementia can have the 'difficult first conversation' with their loved ones. Dr Pritchard is a specialist nurse/Admiral Nurse.

Katie Broadfield will discuss Powers of Attorney, including Enduring and Lasting Powers. Katie will explain the importance of making new Lasting Powers of Attorney, and what happens if someone doesn't have one in place. If you are having to make decisions under an existing Power for a family member, or deal with the registration process, Katie will provide advice and tips to assist you with your role as attorney.

Lisa Colley from Frost Wealth Management Ltd will discuss the importance of financial planning when acting as Power of Attorney for a loved one receiving care. Lisa will explain the care funding system and how it works. She will explain how with careful financial planning it may be possible to fund care for as long as is required, whilst safe guarding as much capital as possible. Lisa will provide information on the options available to help you achieve this.

Presenter Profiles

Dr Jane Pritchard - Consultation Admiral Nurse

Jane has a degree in Psychology and is a registered mental health nurse. She has been working with people with dementia for nearly sixteen years, and is passionate about providing the best possible care for clients. Prior to coming to the Good Care Group, Jane was working as a Nurse Consultant for a specialist younger people with dementia team. Jane studied her doctorate at the University of Southampton, where she interviewed younger people with dementia to understand whether hope is important to them and what makes them feel hopeful.

Katie Broadfield - Associate Director (Solicitor)

Katie advises on Wills and Powers of Attorney to help her clients plan for the future, helping them with difficult decisions at often distressing times. She is a full member of the Society of Trust & Estate Practitioners (STEP) and a full accredited member of Solicitors for the Elderly. Katie specialises in advising clients and their families in relation to finance and health decisions, addressing complex issues of capacity and family dynamics to help them achieve their aims and future peace of mind.
